Trees, Lights Hinder Nest's Portage Trip

Four miles from BGSU stands a three-room log structure belonging to the Portage American Legion. This building is The Falcon's Nest, the University's temporary student union for more than 12 years.

Several weeks ago, volunteer help from the Legion began tearing down the Nest's kitchen, then separated the student and faculty rooms from the main lounge. The next step was to support the structures on rigid wheeled-frames. This was done to prevent excessive strain on certain walls and corners as the moving wheels dropped along road levels.

Nest Moved

From its old site, it was moved down the street towards the Men's Gym, and then to the Lab school field. At 7 a.m. Thursday morning, moving of the sections began. As the structures passed down Wooster St., men were scurrying ahead of the transports digging up street signs that were in the path of the building. Trees were clipped and branches were lifted out of reach of the passing building. Ten traffic lights were raised about 24 feet and police were stationed to direct traffic. Northern Ohio Telephone Co. and the City Electric Department workers cleared way for the building by taking down telephone and electric wires and cables along the route.

Travels 2.5 MPH

By 5 p.m. that night, the Nest was in Portage, having traveled at a rate of 2.5 miles per hour.

The Legion's bid on the building was $575. In addition, deposits of $1,000 and $500 were placed with the telephone company and the city respectively, to cover the cost of clearing the right of way. Moving costs have been estimated about $1,500. Between $5,000 and $6,000 will be spent before the building is finally located in Portage.

The Nest is not forever out of the reach of BG students. Although Portage Legion members and other citizens will be using it as a social gathering-place and a community center, it will be available for rental to University organizations.

University Debaters Place 34 Firsts In 6 Tournaments

The University debaters have taken 34 first places in six debate tournaments this year, while losing 26 times. The squad has finished lower than third only once.

Individual debaters received top superior rating in debate contests even though the team did not rank high.

At the Bradley tournament, the University debaters finished among the top 12 for one of their best accomplishments. The women debaters tied for third at the state tournament for women. At the Ohio Wesleyan Invitational, the debate team tied for first place in the "B" tournament and a tie for third place was given the team at the Buckeye Debate Tournament. Last week the debaters defeated Ohio Northern College.

In addition to debate contests, the team, with the advisership of Dr. Donald C. Kleckner and Raymond Yeager, are continuing with audience debates before service clubs such as the Gibsonburg Exchange, Woodville Kiwanis, East Toledo Kiwanis, Findlay Rotary, Napoleon Rotary, Toledo Kiwanis, and the Bowling Green Rotary.

Recorded, are works by such recent composers as Aaron Copland, Bela Bartok, Igor Stravinsky, Arnold Schoenberg, Roy Harris, Howard Hanson, Ralph Vaughan Williams, Walter Schumann, Dimitri Shostakovich, Walter Piston, and Sergei Prokofiev.

The Pittsburgh Music Festival consists of recordings made by the Pittsburgh Symphony and other orchestras playing music of twentieth century composers, and is made possible by grants from The Carnegie Institute of Technology and the Pennsylvania College for Women. The recordings were sent to over 400 non-commercial educational stations including WBGU.

Premiere Art Exhibition To Open This Week

The premiere public showing of the First American Exhibition of "Copied Originals" by Carl Langguth will open in Bowling Green March 11 and continue through March 13. The hours for showing will be from 1 to 10 p.m. Admission is free.

The premiere showing in Bowling Green commemorates Bowling Green Art Week March 7 to 13, as proclaimed by Mayor Clarence W. Dick. The exhibition will be on display in the recreation hall of the Bowling Green High School.

The showing, being taken on a national tour, includes reproductions of 100 paintings by famous artists such as Rembrandt and Picasso.

The "Copied Originals" have received acclaim from international critics for their fine details, color variations, shadow, and structure of the originals. Ridges caused by brushstrokes and areas of layered or piled-up paint can be felt by the viewer, according to these critics.

Northwestern U. Man To Talk On Grad Work

F. T. Hartzfeld, assistant to the Director of the Graduate Commerce Division, Northwestern University, will be on campus Monday, March 14, to talk to any students who may be interested in further study leading to a Master of Business Administration degree.

Students May Support Radio Free Europe

Students at this University will have the opportunity in the next few days to pledge themselves to the support of Radio Free Europe in its attempt to keep up its job of piping the truth behind the Iron Curtain.

Dean of Administration Ralph G. Harshman enlisted Women Students, Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, the assistant dean of men, and The B-G News this week to make sure that every student on the campus will be given the opportunity to sign the Freedom Scrolls.

Science Publication Okayed By Committee

A proposed student science publication was recommended to the president by the Student Publications Committee at a meeting on Thursday, March 3. If the publication is approved by the president of the University, the first issue will be published this spring.

The magazine, to be composed of student contributions on scientific matters, will be sponsored by three science organizations. These are: Beta Beta Beta, recognition society in Biology; Chemical Journal Club, student affiliate of the American Chemical Society; and the Geological Society, an organization for geology majors and minors.

The staff of the magazine will be composed of members of these three organizations and their advisers will serve as the advisory board. The magazine will be published once a semester at the start. Distribution would be to members of the sponsoring organizations, interested students, other universities, and area high schools.

Catalog Due Soon; Features Drawings

The 1955-56 University Catalog has gone to press and will be available for distribution by the end of this month, according to Harold W. Van Winkle, director of publications and news service.

Among the features in the new edition will be the architect's drawings in the frontispiece of the new dormitories as well as the buildings now in the planning stages.

The catalog's cover will be in the University colors and was designed by Anthony Vlahantones, instructor in art.

Five Treble Clef Concerts Planned In Ohio, Michigan

The Treble Clef Club scheduled out-of-town concerts on March 13 and 19 and on the following Sunday, March 27.

Columbus Grove will be visited by the club March 13 where it will present a concert at the Methodist Church during the service at 10:30 Sunday morning. After the dinner, which is to be served by the church, the chorus will travel to Dayton to present an evening concert.

The following week end the group will give a concert in Auburn Heights, Mich. Tentative plans call for the group staying overnight and singing a concert in the vicinity on Sunday.

The high point of the Treble Clef's year of activities is its home concert to be presented on Sunday, March 27 at 8:15 p.m. in the Main Aud.

Dormitories and the housing units will each have scrolls on their bulletin boards.

One will be posted on the bulletin board on the north side of the Well, and another in the BG News office, for off-campus students to sign.

For Contributions

Self-addressed envelopes will also be available near the scrolls for those students who may wish to contribute money to the crusade. Contributions are completely voluntary, and signing your name to the scroll does not indicate that you pledge monetary contribution.

The presidents of each of the organizations consulted by Dean Harshman indicated their interest in the crusade, and promised to encourage their groups to support the campaign.

The crusade is nation-wide in an attempt to show the peoples of the free and communist-dominated countries of Europe that Americans are interested in keeping Europe free of Communist domination.

Radio Free Europe reaches the 70 million people in the captive countries of Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania, and Bulgaria behind the Iron Curtain; people who have known freedom and have historically fought for the democratic way of life.

Through the radio, the free world hopes to keep freedom in the minds of those peoples subjected to Soviet propaganda. Radio Free Europe has operated for four years. Many smuggled letters, escapees, and Communist defectors testify to the enormous influence of Radio Free Europe on the people behind the Iron Curtain.

From Munich

From the radio's main studios in Munich, programs are broadcast as much as 20 hours a day to the target countries. It has 29 transmitters and relay stations in West Germany and Portugal which see to it that the programs can be picked up on many different points of the listeners' radio dials.

RFE hopes to expand, and its success depends on the degree to which it represents millions of individual Americans. Exiles from the satellite nations make the programs and do the broadcasting with the assistance and technical aid of American members of the staff.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower said that every American who joins the Crusade can be sure in his heart that "he is supporting the cause of peace throughout the world," "is helping arm the spirits of captive people with hope and courage," and "is helping to keep Central and Eastern Europeans strong-hearted, nationally proud, determined to win their own way back to freedom."

The scrolls will be posted on this campus throughout this week and several days of next week.

Michigan Econ Prof To Talk On Consumer

James N. Morgan, associate professor of economics at the University of Michigan, will give a lecture on "Consumer Debts, Assets, and Spending," at 4 p.m. Thursday, March 10, in the recreation hall.

Dr. Morgan has written widely in the field of consumer economics. His latest book on this subject will be published sometime next month.

Everyone is welcome to attend the lecture and refreshments will be served.

Hermetically sealed windows to insure proper acoustics as well as correct air conditions, will be features of the new University music building. Working drawings by Britsch and Munger, Toledo architects, are awaiting final approval and bids on the construction are expected to be taken shortly. An unusual feature of the new building is the recital hall, at the right of the entrance, which is not only acoustically perfect, but also has fixed and movable platform sections which will permit a large variety of seating arrangements, depending on the type and size of the performing group.

In Our Opinion

Not Forgotten

For the first time in several years students of Bowling Green have the opportunity to unite and show the peoples of Communist-held European countries that we have not forgotten them.

Signing your name to one of the Freedom Scrolls is the only obligation. Your signature will show your support of Radio Free Europe, which in turn may give courage to thousands of free-thinking persons caught behind the Iron Curtain.

The campaign is not a part of the Campus Chest Drive, but envelopes will be provided near the Scrolls for those who wish to contribute.

It is hoped, that this University will be well represented when the Freedom Scrolls are sent to the Radio Free Europe stations in Germany.

Evolution Again

Separation of the church and the state has been resurrected and introduced in a state legislature. This time in the state of Colorado.

A minister in that state has presented to a state representative a resolution seeking to ban the teaching of evolution in state-supported schools. The minister said he and his followers "don't mind having books by Darwin and the other evolutionists in the library, because that is following the idea of freedom of speech and the press."

His complaint is against the actual teaching of evolution in the classrooms, or using those books as texts, for he believes the theory to be subject of religious nature, and not one of sciences.

A state legislator from Boulder took the opposite view of the issue, and stated "I for one will fight the . . . resolution. We would not even consider such a resolution in the House; in fact, it would probably be buried in committee."

The legislator added, "This is not something for the legislature to decide. The University should have its choice of what subjects it wishes to teach."

Why Are Teeners Scrutinized? Asks Minnesota Reporter

BY GERALD MURRAY

An editorial writer for the Northern Student of Bemidji State Teachers College in Minnesota recently became concerned with the reports "on the present state of the younger generation" which have been printed of late in the nation's magazines.

The embryo reporter added that "our elders are possibly getting a little too nosy in putting us under their microscope."

MURRAY

We might not care to agree with the writer in that the oldsters should keep their noses out of the youngsters' doings since that would lead to a lack of understanding, but we do admire some of his comparisons.

He comments, "The eternal question seems to be why don't we swallow goldfish, sit on flag poles and carry hooch in flasks; they seem particularly disappointed when we don't come up with enough radicals to satisfy a comparison with the roaring twenties."

He went on to say that the younger generation is trying to avoid becoming lost in the lost generation, and are reluctant to imitate the insane antics of our elders. "Please don't be affronted if we don't dance on table tops, go roaring off to immortal grid classics in racy con coats and get wildly drunk. Bear up under our childish whims."

He concludes that we would really like to work out our own plans and possibly leave a more settled world than the Roaring twenties left us.

The nameplate (that's the name of the paper on page one) of The B-G News may find itself reproduced in a technical book before long. When Edmund Arnold, editor of the Lino-type News, spoke on campus last week, he hinted he may use the News nameplate as one of the examples in his forthcoming book, "Designing the Functional Newspaper." Kingspor Typefounders of New Jersey, the company through which we ordered the new headline type has asked for several copies of our newspaper to send to the type manufacturers in Germany.

The Toledo Youth Orchestra will give a concert at Anthony Wayne High School Sunday at 3 p.m. The orchestra is new this year, and open to students up to 23 years of age. Rehearsals are held from 7 to 9 every Monday evening during the school year. Auditions for new members are held every January and September in the Toledo Scott High School music department.

Brigham Young University's newspaper printed the headline of the week concerning their influenza problem—The Aque and I.

The Wheaton Record, weekly publication of Wheaton College, will print no more of Dick Bibler's widely syndicated "Little Man on Campus" or "Prof. Snarf" cartoons. The college administration has forbidden their publication in the college newspaper, claiming the cartoons to be "largely in poor taste," and "generally unwholesome" in philosophy.

This comes as quite a shock to many of the college newspapers throughout the nation, since nearly all of us have used Bibler at some time or other, enjoyed them quite thoroughly, and have had comments from the faculty that they enjoyed Bibler's conceptions of the college professor.

The Goldenrod of Nebraska State Teachers College reports a story about a girl who attempted to take Alka Seltzer for the first time and stated that they were too large to swallow.

Maurice Evans' production of Shakespeare's "Richard II," will be shown in the main auditorium at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, March 10.

This two-hour program is the movie reproduction of last year's NBC television show. The English department obtained the film from the Institute of Visual Training Inc., New York.

Dr. Emerson C. Shuck, chairman of the English department, stated that Maurice Evans' version of "Richard II," is one of the best available today.

BG Grad Makes Maps For Air Force

A former Bowling Green student, John Chapman, is working with mapping in the U.S. Air Force. He stopped on campus en route to Panama for a new operation.

Lt. Chapman pilots a helicopter, used in the mapping. Recently his unit mapped U.S. territory in Alaska in just a few months. The job, done the usual way, would have taken 15 years. The unit plans to do a similar job in the jungles in Panama.

A veteran of World War II, Lt. Chapman was graduated with a degree in journalism in 1951 and re-entered the Air Force in 1953.

ROTC Rifle Team Scores High; Wells Breaks BG Record

"The Artillery ROTC rifle team scored 7,132 of a possible 8,000 points in the 2nd Army Intercollegiate Rifle Match," said Capt. Robert G. Menefee Jr., rifle team coach. He added that this score was 56 points higher than the team score last year when it placed thirteenth in the match.

Wells Sets Record

Ralph Wells set a new Bowling Green scoring record for this match when he scored 754 of a possible 800 points. The old record, set in 1953, was 723 points. Carl Henne shot 739 which also broke the record and took second place honors. John Cunningham tied the old record and placed third.

The rifle match consists of four stages; the prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions. Thirteen cadets fired from each of these positions. The top 10 scores from among the 13 cadets were included in the final score. Each man contributed to the final score in at least one of these positions. Each team fires the match on its home rifle range and then sends its targets to 2nd Army headquarters where they are rechecked and the teams are ranked.

Team Members

Ford's Latest Picture May Vie For Oscar; Power, O'Hara Star

By SHELDON KADISH

From what we saw at a special screening at the Cla-Zel last week, it looks like four-time Academy Award-winning director John Ford is going to make a strong bid for his fifth Oscar this year. Ford's latest, and possibly his best, picture is "The Long Grey Line," which will come to Bowling Green this week end.

Does His Best

Tyrone Power, doing the best acting of his career, and Maureen O'Hara are the stars of the Columbia Pictures' CinemaScope production. Power plays the part of Sergeant Marty Maher, West Point athletic trainer for almost fifty years, while Miss O'Hara assumes the role of Maher's wife. A really heart-warming story, something which has been missing from Hollywood for quite a while, the picture was filmed at West Point in Technicolor.

What A Mess

Marty Maher came to West Point from Ireland to serve as a waiter in the cadet mess. Probably the worst waiter in the history of the academy, he soon enlisted in the Army to avoid having to pay for broken dishes. Maher served his entire army career at West Point, progressing from a guard to athletic trainer and adviser to thousands of cadets. Among the others seen in the picture are "Black Jack" Pershing, Omar N. Bradley, an injured football player called "Ike" and the entire present-day corps of cadets, who are seen in several inspiring scenes. Look for "The Long Grey Line" to be one of the top-ranked pictures of this year.

Here are some items culled from the latest issue of "Down Beat":

Webb And Kelly

Jack Webb, of "Dragnet" fame is planning to make a new picture, "Pete Kelly's Blues," in which he will play a jazz trumpeter. Also slated for a top role is Ella Fitzgerald, the wonderful jazz singer.

Doris Day, who has just completed "Love Me or Leave Me," a film biography of Ruth Etting, has just been released from her Warner Brothers contract at her own request.

Australia Loves It

American entertainment seems to go over big in Australia. The latest group to leave for an Australian tour is Spike Jones and the City Slickers, who will receive $163,000 for a three-week tour. Stan Kenton fans will be pleased by Capitol Records latest release, "The Kenton Era." The new limited edition is a documented record of Kenton's career from 1940 to the present. It's an album that most fans of modern jazz will treasure.

Home Ec Group To Present Etiquette Skit

Home Economics Club will present a skit about college etiquette at its meeting Wednesday, March 9, in the foods lab of the Practical Arts Bldg.

Arla Christen, Helen Long, Pat Reynolds, and Patricia Pietras will take part in the skit. Miss Laura E. Heston, professor of home economics, is adviser to the group.

As a special project, the club is sending packages of sewing supplies to home economics classes in Greece.

Kent State's Don Berry shows concern as Ohio University's Dale Bonifield pours it on in attempt to get a pin. Bonifield failed to get the pin but won on a decision which helped O.U. to cop first place in the M.A.C. wrestling championships held here Saturday afternoon.

Wrestlers Cop Second In Conference Meet

By JACK MORTLAND

Bowling Green finished a surprise second in the Mid-American wrestling championships held here on Saturday. A victory by Kenny Russell in the final championship match clinched the second place finish for the Falcons. Ohio University won the title, dethroning Toledo who had won for the past three years.

Russell's victory in the heavy-weight bout was the only individual title for the Falcons. Russell defeated Toledo's Don Wem, who had won championships for three years in three different weight classes. Russell won on a referee's decision after the two wrestlers had deadlocked 1-1.

Tony Mencini, was the only other BG wrestler to advance to the finals. He gained runner-up honors losing a close match to Steve Rudo, of Ohio U., 3-1 in the 157 class.

Five Falcons Win

However five other Falcons won consolation matches to add valuable points to the BG score. In the 123 class, Tom Hoskinson defeated Wendell Gabier of Miami 4-0 for a third place. Kermit Knowles won a 130 pound consolation from Tom Leffler, Toledo, on a referee's decision. Jack Mikush won over Ron Cartmell, of Marshall, 7-3, for third place in the 137 class.

Other BG consolation winners were Jack Leonard, who defeated Bob Rychlik, Miami, 6-4, and Carl Ford who won in the 177 pound match from Marshall's Dick Bryan, 7-3.

OU Captures Three Crowns

In winning the championship Ohio U. produced three individual champions. Tom Nevits defeated Jack Patrick, Kent State at 130 pounds; Dale Bonifield dethroned Kent's Don Berry in the 147 class; and Rudo defeated Mencini.

Kent and Toledo each produced two winners to complete the list of champions. Kent winners were Jack Love who defended his 123 pound title by beating Jim Hertel, Ohio U. and John Twark who dethroned John Sforzo, Ohio U., for the 137 pound title.

Frank Baumgartner and Dick Bonacci were TU winners. Baumgartner won in the 167 pound class from Chuck Tanner, Marshall, and Bonacci dethroned Ken Zeman, Ohio U., at 177 pounds.

Final team scores: Ohio University—51, Bowling Green—35, Kent State—32, Toledo U.—27, Miami and Marshall—12.

Kenny Russell's victory over Toledo's Don Wem in the MAC heavyweight wrestling class marked the first time that a Bowling Green man has ever taken an MAC wrestling crown. Russell, very popular among conference wrestlers, was cheered heartily by wrestlers from most of the schools entered. Only a sophomore, he also excels in football where he was a starting tackle on last year's team.

BOCK TO SPEAK AT SERVICE

"Beyond Moralism to Christianity" will be analyzed by the Rev. Paul Bock, at 4 p.m. March 9 in Prout Chapel.

Betsy J. Sandlin is the student leader. Fran L. Miller will provide the music.

Swimmers Breeze By Ball State In Season Finale, 62-22

The BG swimming team had an easy time defeating Ball State in the Falcon tank, Saturday. The final score of 62-22 could have been even greater if coach Sam Cooper had chosen to pour it on.

It was Bowling Green's tenth win of the season, in dual meets, as compared to three setbacks. The Falcons won all, but one of the ten events in a meet which proved good practice for the MAC contenders.

Relay Team Wins

In the first event, the 200-yd. medley relay, BG's team of Paul Dressel, Jimmy Repp, and Dave Hamilton was the winner in the time of 3:15.8. Paul Atkinson won the 220-yd. freestyle in 2:24.5. Dick Rose captured the 50-yd. freestyle in 25.1, and Don Kepler won the 150-yd. individual medley in 1:38.

Ball State hit its most successful event in the diving as it picked up six points on a first and a third. The winner Powell was followed by Rose.

Hamilton won the 100-yd. freestyle in the time of 58.2. Then, Dressel won that event in 2:32.5.

Repp Takes 220

Repp won the 200-yd. breaststroke with a 2:50.2. In these last two events BG only entered one swimmer and they both came through with firsts.

Jim O'Connor won the 440-yd. freestyle in 5:29.5.

Next, BG's 400-yd. freestyle relay team of Seidl, Repp, O'Connor and Dressel won this event in 4:03.5.

An extra attraction delighted the crowd. Two freshmen swimmers Bill Muir and Don Worsfold combined with Don Kepler and Dick Rose in an exhibition 400-yd. freestyle relay and bettered the BG record for this event by two full seconds.

Four Teams Victorious In Independent Games

Independent basketball action March 1 saw Kaufman A. C. trounce The Macs 62-17, as Johnson poured in 20 points for the victors. The Castoffs turned back the Falcons 47-10, while Joe's Makeouts edged the Upper C Cats in a 57-51 thriller. MIS squeaked by Chamber's Maids 38-36.

Two games were forfeited, as Ma Phillips Oilers won from SIM, and The Group dethroned the Town Trotters.

long can get places in these events, the Falcons could make up for their weaker events.

However, BG, the MAC relay champions, will be favored in both relays despite tough opposition by OU. Should the Falcons come through, it would be the first team in Bowling Green to cop an MAC crown.

PRESSBOX PORTRAITS

By DICK BUDD

The naming of a new head football coach at Bowling Green begins a new era in the sport for the Falcons, but also brings to a close another. Fourteen years of coaching and an overall winning record for Bob "The Bear" Whitaker.

Fourteen years is a good number of years in anyone's life, and Robert Whittaker devoted them to developing football players and teams for this University. Public sentiment has a tendency to forget the important points in such a situation, and is often harsh in its judgement.

In holding the head mentor's position for 14 years, Whittaker has gained the distinction of being the longest employed coach of any of the state universities. This in itself certainly reflects his ability as a coach. His resignation marks the end of a 26-year coaching career and a lifetime winning record. LET US FORGET.

Edward Schembechler, former line coach at Presbyterian College in South Carolina, was picked by new Falcon coach Hoyt Perry as his first of two assistants. Schembechler is a graduate of Miami U. where he played football under Woody Hayes, present Ohio State coach.

Schembechler received his master's degree from Ohio State where he served one season as an "assistant coach." He is from Barborton where he starred in three sports under Coach Harry Stobel, now defensive line coach for the Buckeyes. It would seem that Bowling Green is slowly shaping up as an Ohio State colony as far as football is concerned.

June marks the end of Western Reserve's participation as a member of the Mid-American Conference. Who will be their replacement remains a mystery. There are several rumors floating involving, Xavier, Baldwin-Wallace, presently members of the President's League, and Cincinnati, formerly a member in the MAC.

No definite steps have been taken as yet to replace the Redcats and the conference will probably remain a seven-team circuit until the 56-57 school year.

The possibilities of Bob Dallas returning to Bowling Green in the fall are good. If Dallas, former BG lineman, is able to return to school in time for the grid season, he will have to sit out the first game. When Dallas left BG in 1953 he was granted special permission to play in the Youngstown opener, which would warrant his sitting out the first game of the 1955 season. The big problem is whether or not Dallas will receive his discharge before September.

Other BG athletes returning include basketballer Gene Ray and possibly "Boo" Ellis. It has been definitely established that Ray will return to school this summer. Ellis, now in Germany, may return barring any unforeseen complications.

"Bucky" Slesinger could conceivably join former teammates, Ellis and Ray by basketball time next season if he can overcome the same barrier that Dallas faces. His participation next winter rests entirely on his time of discharge.

The outcome of the MAC swimming meet this week end may hinge on the outcome of the diving. Although the Falcons are strong in most of the other events, the diving has remained a problem all season.

Alma Mater Lyrics Written In 1936 To Fit Tune Of Popular 'Finlandia'

The lyrics of the Bowling Green Alma Mater were composed in 1936 by James W. Carmichael, who was then chairman of the speech department and professor of English.

Mr. Carmichael wrote the lyrics at the request of Merrill C. McEwen, professor of music and chairman of the music department. Mr. McEwen suggested the song, "Finlandia," by Sibelius, as the melody for the Alma Mater.

Reveres Ditch Diggers

"Since 'Finlandia' had a homeland theme and appeal, I tried to connect the pioneer past with the function of the college in the present; to instill reverence for the ditch digger, land clearers, road builders, of once water-soaked Wood County. We owe them something, surely." Thus Mr. Carmichael explains his choice of words, and the many references to pioneers in our Alma Mater.

He spent 23 years as a member of the faculty of the University. He taught courses in English and speech, and was the debate coach for several years. He left the University in 1942, and spent the next year on his farm in Cambridge, Vt., and also in Miami, Fla.

Works In Defense Plant

In the latter part of 1943, he worked in a defense plant in Santa Barbara, Calif., constructing airplane wings for P-38's. He later taught at Texas A & M College, College Station, Tex., and was also a member of the English faculty at Louisburg College in North Carolina.

In 1952, he retired and built duplex homes in Lake Wales, Fla. He said that he enjoys meeting people from Ohio, Maine, Illinois, Michigan, and other states each winter.

This year, a $100 award will be given to the person who submits an "appropriate" verse of lyrics for the present Alma Mater. The winner of this award will be announced.
